

Optoducts for indoor installation

DESCRIPTION

Opto-tubes ID are designed for long-term protection of fiber optic cables indoors and are made of halogen-free and flame-retardant material. Used in environments where high fire safety is required, for example in tunnels, at airports and in hospital environments. But also in buildings where escape routes must be secured and in industrial and public buildings where high demands are placed on fire safety.

Product number	Product name
	Optoducts indoor HFFR

